

Draft Presidential Search Timeline

The presidential search will span over the course of five to six months with time being a commanding factor to the success of the search. Gold Hill Associates has proposed a draft timeline, which is shared below. When the finalized timeline for the presidential search is approved by the CGCC Board of Education that will be sent out and shared.

- Second week of October
 - Meet with Board
 - Host open forums – consultant meets with members of the college's internal/external community to discuss the institution and leadership needs
 - Meet with presidential search screening committee
- Mid October
 - Develop and send electronic and print advertisements
 - Begin recruitment
- Mid to late November
 - Applicant closing date
 - Gold Hill consultant recommends semi-finalists for screening committee and for board approval
- Early December
 - Skype interviews of semi-finalists by screening committee
 - Screening committee meets with Gold Hill to select finalists to recommend to the Board of Education
 - Board approves finalists
- Mid January
 - On-campus interviews of finalists by the Board and campus community
- Late January/Early February
 - Optional – Board team visits home campus of selected finalist
- Mid February
 - Candidate negotiations
- March or April
 - Announcement made