

May 31—June 2, 2012

Indian Creek Stewards

Education Series

Thursday, May 31, 6:30 p.m.—Indian Creek Stewards Open House at Springhouse Cellar, 13 Railroad Avenue, Hood River

Featured presentation by: Cheryl Mack

“Native People of the Hood River Basin”

Friday, June 1, 7:00-9:00 p.m.—Indian Creek Bat Tour

at Columbia Gorge Community College, 1730 College Way, Hood River

Presentation by: Karen Hadley (Bat Steward)

“Bats Demystified” (wear walking shoes)

Saturday, June 2—Education & Restoration Field Day

at Columbia Gorge Community College, 1730 College Way, Hood River

9:00—11:30 a.m.: Projects on Indian Creek

(demonstration of using goats to control blackberry and other weeds, building in-stream fish habitat structures, water quality testing, native plant talks, and more)

12:00 noon—1:00 p.m.: Lunch and Raptor Presentation

Lunch provided by the Indian Creek Stewards

Raptor presentation by the Rowena Wildlife Clinic

All events are free!

Donations welcome

For information call, 541.386.6063