

Paulann Petersen

Oregon's Poet Laureate

leads a

Creative Writing Workshop

Tuesday, October 30
1:00 – 5:00 pm

Columbia Gorge
Community College

Hood River
Indian Creek Campus

1730 College Way
Hood River

To Register

(Space is free but limited.)

contact

Susan Lewis

541.506.6047

slewis@cgcc.cc.or.us

FREE TO ALL

COLUMBIA GORGE
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

*building dreams,
transforming lives*

"I am offering this writing workshop to help people generate new creative writing that is not genre-specific, to see where their writing will take them.

Anyone interested in writing is welcome!"

Columbia Gorge Community College is an equal opportunity educator and employer.
For special access needs, call Shayna Dahl at 541.506.6046.

Paulann Petersen

Oregon's Poet Laureate

Poetry Reading & Discussion

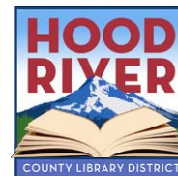

Tuesday, October 30
7:00 – 9:00 pm

Hood River Library

Columbia Gorge History Room

502 State Street
Hood River
541.386.2535

Open & Free to the public

Paulann Petersen was born and raised in Oregon and spent half of her adult life in Klamath Falls. Petersen is a committed teacher who has taught high school English and led dozens of workshops in schools, libraries, colleges, and writer's conferences across Oregon. She is a widely published poet, with five collections – The Wild Awake (2002), Blood-Silk (2004), A Bride of Narrow Escape (2006), Kindle (2008) and The Voluptuary (2010) – as well as chapbooks to her credit. Her poetry is featured on TriMet public transportation in Portland as part of Poetry in Motion® as well as in many publications. Ms. Petersen has received Stanford University's Wallace Stegner Fellowship in Poetry, two Carolyn Kizer Poetry Awards, and Literary Art's Stewart Holbrook Award for Outstanding Contributions to Oregon's Literary Life.

