SOC 213 – Diversity in the United States – Dan Hall – Spring 2016

Outcome #1 *

Apply sociological perspectives and use their sociological imagination in analyzing the causes and consequences of social inequality and evaluating social actions and policies as they reproduce privilege and institutional discrimination.

Outcome #2 *

Locate themselves within their various social statuses and how those play out social contexts (connect their personal biography and social status with societal history) to reflect on the processes that shape and address the structure and operation of systems of stratification.

Outcome #3 *

Participate as active citizens in their societies and communities, demonstrating respect for diversity, critical thinking, and collaboration in addressing inequality and privilege as it exists in current social actions and contexts.

4. How will you know if you were successful in your efforts to teach this outcome?

Outcome #1 *

Success of outcome will be determined by the Short analytical written assignments' and research paper's total grade percentage average combined. If the class's grade average is 90% or above, this will indicate a mastery of the subject material learned. 80%–89.9% will indicate above average understanding of subject material with 70% – 79.9% indicating average. Anything below 70% will indicate below average understanding. I will conclude the class successful if a grade average of 70% or higher is met.
