

1. Outcomes	2. Criteria or Target	3. Measurement Tool (course and assignment)	4. When/how and by who analysis of assessment will be accomplished	5. Program Assessment
Students who complete this certificate of completion should be able to:
1. Effectively assess patients and make critical decisions in a variety of settings at an EMT entry-level.	Be able to achieve 85% or better on skill evaluation sheets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● EMT psychomotor skills assessment sheet ● Written self - study case scenarios ● Verbal scenarios presentation 	EMT faculty and class peers,	MET 90% first time pass rate.
2. Competently treat, extricate, and transport patients in a variety of settings at an EMT entry-level.	Be able to achieve 85% or better on skill evaluation sheets Achieve 3's & 4's on the clinical evaluations' sheets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● EMT psychomotor skills assessment sheet ● Clinical evaluations assessment sheets 	EMT Faculty	MET 100% completion
3. Apply for positions as EMTs with ambulance services either paid or volunteer.	85% of students pass the NREMT exam (offered in class)	National Registry EMT (NREMT) exam	State approved EMT tester.	MET 85% of students passed the NREMT exam
4. Effectively communicate, interact and work appropriately with patients and their family, fellow emergency workers, hospital health care providers, and supervisors.	Be able to achieve 85% or better on skill evaluation sheets Achieve 3's & 4's on the clinical evaluations' sheets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● EMT psychomotor skills assessment sheet ● Clinical evaluations assessment sheets 	EMT Faculty	MET 100% completion

Submitted by:

Date:

Tessie Adams

7/27/2023

Plans are to be submitted to kbooth@cgcc.edu by 11/15 of the academic year being assessed.

Results are to be submitted to kbooth@cgcc.edu by 6/30 of the academic year being assessed